Pages 102–103: Identity and culture

Exercise 1

a 1 especially 2 also 3 cartoons 4 because 5 to go/going shopping 6 boring

b I love going cycling, especially with my friends at the weekend. I also like watching TV and I prefer cartoons because they are funny. I hate going shopping and I don't like going for walks because it's very boring.

Exercise 2

b 1 am going 2 gets on my nerves 3 12 4 pretty 5 often go

Exercise 3

b In July every year there is a music festival in my town. It all started ten years ago but now the festival is bigger and more important. However, in my opinion, there are too many tourists.

2 My best friend, Jennifer, spends a lot of time going horse riding. She has a grey horse but she would like another one. I am passionate about winter sports and I'm going to go to Italy to go skiing in January.

Exercise 4

1 mountain biking

2 almost every day

3 not only good for keeping fit

4 you can appreciate the beautiful landscape and breathe the fresh air

5 all alone in the hills near my house

Exercise 5

1 I know that I could not live without the Internet. I like posting my photos on Facebook and staying in contact with my friends who live a long way from me, even abroad. However, I accept that there are risks: for example, my cousin was the victim of cyberbullying and she was really upset.

2 I have many/lots of friends, but Mani is the best. We have the same interests, we chat, we go to the cinema and although we argue from time to time, it's never serious. He is funny and understanding, so we get on well. Recently we went on holiday with his family and everyone had a good time.

3 I live in the south-east of France in a little country village. The 14th July is the most important day of the year for us. Usually there are sporting or cultural competitions and in the evening you can watch a firework display, but next year there will be a circus with wild animals.

Pages 104–105: Local area, holiday and travel

Exercise 1

b J'habite – I live; j'aime habiter – I like living; c'est – it is; habitent – (they) live; on peut aller – you can go; faire – to do/go; je voudrais habiter – I would like to live.

c I live in a little town in the countryside. I like living here because it's peaceful and because lots of my friends live near me. You can go to the cinema and go shopping in the town centre. However, I would like to live in Spain.

Exercise 2

- 1 I'm going to tell you
- 2 I go to Switzerland
- 3 spend a week
- 4 go skiing every day
- 5 is 9 (years old)
- 6 she is not sporty

Exercise 3

- 1 Usually I spend my holidays on a campsite in Wales with my family. We travel by car and it's my dad who drives. Last year on the journey I listened to some music, but my little brother slept.
- 2 I live in a pretty village at the seaside in Belgium. I don't like living here because it's boring and there is nothing for young people to do, but from time to time I go to the beach with my friends. I would prefer to live in France.

Exercise 4

Open answers

Exercise 5

- 1 Last year I went on holiday to Portugal with my parents, but my older sister didn't come because she was working. I had a very good time even so because there was a lot to do. My parents visited museums and monuments but I sunbathed and bought some presents.
- 2 I like travelling by plane because it's an efficient, fast and pleasant means of transport. My aunt is scared of travelling by plane and two years ago she refused to come on holiday with us. On the other hand, I don't like travelling by boat as I always get seasick.
- 3 My town attracts a lot of tourists because of its history. You can visit the castle and the beautiful cathedral but for those who like sport, there's a rugby stadium where you can watch matches. I went there yesterday with an English friend and it was great.

Pages 106–107: School

Exercise 1

1 spend 2 south east 3 really great 4 some 5 nice

Exercise 2

... There are about 1,000 pupils, aged from 11 to 18. My teachers are quite strict but understanding. I have too much homework to do every evening.

Exercise 3

- 1 At school my favourite subject is art because I'm creative, but I hate French. It's a difficult subject and I don't get on with my teacher. I have chosen to study Spanish because I think that it's useful and quite easy.
- 2 I don't like my school. The school day is too long and the rules are strict. You can't wear jewellery and in my opinion that's ridiculous. I'm going to take exams this summer, so I have lots of school work to do / I have to do lots of school work.

Exercise 4

- 1 well equipped
- 2 interactive white board in every classroom
- 3 have been here for
- 4 hard-working and kind
- 5 weak at languages
- 6 my best friend helps me with

Exercise 5

- 1 I love my school and English particularly interests me. I have just returned from a school trip to England and I have been able to improve my English by speaking to teenagers over there. We spent a week in Bath where I liked seeing the old buildings and the impressive church in the town centre. I hope to go back there.
- 2 When I was younger I used to go to a little primary school which I liked very much. Unfortunately my secondary school is too big in my opinion and the rules are strict and completely stupid. I don't understand why I cannot have a piercing and I would like to be able to dye my hair.
- 3 In England pupils must wear a school uniform, which encourages good discipline and hides differences between rich and poor. In my school you can wear what you like but I don't like that because there are those who wear expensive and smart clothes to show that they have a lot of money.

Pages 108–109: Future aspirations, study and work

Exercise 1

- a
  - 1 soon
  - 2 to continue my studies
  - 3 in the future
  - 4 to find
  - 5 well-paid
  - 6 near to
- b I'm going to leave my school soon. I intend to continue my maths studies at university because in the future I would like to find a well-paid job. I think that I'm going to go to a university which is near my parents' house.

Exercise 2

- 1 like to travel
- 2 like to visit
- 3 has already visited
- 4 found
- 5 is to buy
- 6 would be able to go

Exercise 3

- 1 Later in life I intend to get married and I'd like to have two or three children. My dream is to become a pilot because I love planes. I also want to go on a world tour with my family. Above all, I'd like to be happy.
- 2 I don't know exactly what I'm going to do in life, but I'd like to continue studying art because people say I'm artistic. I don't want to get married since my parents got divorced five years ago.

Exercise 4

- a
  - 1 I will travel
  - 2 I dream
  - 3 I hope
  - 4 My brother would like
  - 5 I'm planning
  - 6 I intend
- b Later in life I will travel everywhere in the world since I dream of discovering other foreign cultures. I also hope to work elsewhere in the future. My brother would like to live in Australia because he likes the hot weather over there. I'm planning to go to university and I intend to be rich one day.

Exercise 5

- 1 When I leave school I plan on going to university to study physics. After finishing my studies, my ambition is to become an engineer like my father. He says that it is an interesting and stimulating job, so he likes his work a lot. I hope to work for a company where I would be able to use my skills.
- 2 Next year I would like to do an apprenticeship in a garage because I like technical work enormously / I really like technical work and being a mechanic has always appealed to me. My dream is to build my own car but I know that will be very difficult. If I work hard, perhaps I will find a satisfying and quite well-paid job and I'll be happy.
- 3 Later on in life I'd like to do voluntary work in Africa because I think it's important to help disadvantaged people, especially the poor. My parents have always encouraged me to think of others, so I would like to try to improve the lives of those who don't have much. I'm interested in science and in the future I hope to study medicine.

Pages 110–111: International and global dimension

Exercise 1

- 1 the most important
- 2 an international
- 3 the race
- 4 more than 50 different nationalities
- 5 since

Exercise 2

a 1 to recycle 2 glass 3 cardboard 4 to protect 5 our planet 6 our old clothes

b I try to recycle everything, glass, paper, cardboard and metal. My friends think that it's important to protect our planet and they take part in online forums/chatrooms on the internet. Recently my mother and I started to recycle our old clothes.

Exercise 3

1 In September there is an international music festival in Montreal in Canada for musicians aged from 10 to 17. The festival started eight years ago with only 15 young musicians but this year more than 100 people are going to take part in the festival.

2 I think that we must reduce pollution and save energy to help the environment. I'm sad when I see young people's good efforts to recycle and use public transport whilst international governments are not doing enough.

Exercise 4

- 1 West
- 2 very
- 3 a lot of
- 4 wood
- 5 other countries

Exercise 5

1 I'm really interested in animals and I am a member of a charitable organisation which protects animals in danger of extinction in the whole world. I have been working on a farm as a volunteer for more than two years and soon I'm going to adopt a panda or maybe a tiger, in order to save these species.

2 In my opinion we must be more ecological, but my friends don't agree and they do nothing / they don't do anything to save the Earth. I have succeeded in persuading my parents not to use the car for short journeys and I am never going to travel by plane. Naturally I always turn off the light when I leave a room.

3 Climate change is, for me, the most serious problem in the world. I'm worried about the risks caused by global warming, especially the sea level. Everywhere there have been more floods and storms and in my opinion we must reduce the atmospheric/air pollution which causes these problems.
