Dear Parents/Guardians

I hope you son is valuing being part of the community of Bishop Wordsworth's School.

We will shortly be starting some meetings for boys to explore the Christian faith and their own values and life direction. There will be the offer of Confirmation in the Church of England later in the year for those interested in taking that step.

The approach will be age appropriate for those attending and is open to boys from all sections of the school. The boys involved will include those with no church connection, some who are already confirmed and also those from traditions with their own ways of marking the move to personal Christian faith. The timing of these meetings will be flexible to maximise the opportunity to attend.

Please would you – or your son directly – email me to let me know if he would like to be involved in this awg@bws.wilts.sch.uk.

Best wishes

Rev Andrew Gough
School Chaplain
