Dear Parents / Guardians

Macbeth – Year 10

As you know Macbeth is a key component of the students' GCSE course and the English Department are planning a visit to see a live performance by the Playing Shakespeare Company sponsored by Deutsche Bank. It boasts a full company and production, giving pupils the superb experience of seeing the play in the important context of the historic Globe Theatre. We have been told to expect "fast-paced, dramatic, accessible performances and a show the whole family will enjoy"; and our previous experience of seeing the same company enact Romeo and Juliet certainly supports this!

Date	Visit to	Cost	Details of visit	Times	Requirements
Thursday 5 th March 2020	The Globe Theatre, London	£35.50	Leave and return to school by coach	Leave after morning registration; returning approx. 7pm	School uniform, weather proof outer clothing and warm boots/walking shoes bearing in mind it is an outdoor theatre. A substantial packed lunch, snacks and plenty to drink.

To enable this trip to happen we would like five parent/guardian volunteers to accompany. If you are able to help please email Mrs.B Singleton via bjs@bws.wilts.sch.uk. There is no cost for parents/guardians.
