

5 February 2015

Dear Parents

Propeller production of Shakespeare's 'A Comedy of Errors'

As a continuation from last year's 'Pocket Henry V' we have arranged again for the Propeller Theatre Company to put on special performances of their 'Comedy of Errors' in the BWS Sports Hall on Monday 9 February 2015. There will be a performance in the afternoon for the students with a limit of 300 seats only (2.35 - 3.50 pm) and then a later evening performance which will be open to the general public (7 pm start)

Tickets are still on sale for the evening session starting at 7 pm.

Adults: £7.50 Concessions: £5.00

Light refreshments will be on sale from 6.30 pm.

Tickets can also be acquired on the door.

Propeller is a touring company which specialises in very lively and shortened versions of the major plays. The productions are especially suited to young people, but adults also thoroughly enjoy these shortened, punchy, narrative-driven productions – you may perhaps have seen the recent performance of the Pocket 'Merchant of Venice' at the Arts Centre Salisbury, which was fantastic? The shows are usually followed by a talk out by the cast which allows members of the audience (young and old) to ask the actors about both the play and their approach to performing Shakespeare and acting more generally.

Last year's performance was an enjoyable and successful event and I hope you would support this venture again. I would therefore be grateful if you could make the necessary payment by Friday 7 February, either online via www.scopay.com. Yours sincerely
