We are looking for an enthusiastic and well qualified teacher to teach in our Economics and Business Department. Business Studies is delivered at GCSE, AS and A2 level whilst Economics is taught at AS and A2 Level only. Both are very popular options, standards are very high and our record of university entrance is very strong.

The successful candidate will need to be able to teach Business to A2 level. The ability to teach Economics would be an advantage but is not essential. We would welcome applications from any sector of education and would be willing to consider applications from part-time candidates since the post could be divided into two part-time positions or one full-time position. NQT's would also be considered.

Bishop's has a very broad and strong programme of extra-curricular activities, and the post holder will be expected to contribute to the general enhancement of the boys' education as appropriate.
