The French Department is planning to organise the above visit for Year 10 and Year 13 pupils. Girls from SWGS and boys from BWS will spend a week in France, staying with host families from our partner school, St Joseph du Loquidy. While in France the students will attend school for a morning and go on trips and excursions in the surrounding area. We will go by coach and ferry to France.

The French students will come to Salisbury on 31 March and leave on 7 April 2017.
