Bishop Wordsworth's School enjoys a number of varied extra-curricular adult courses combining a fine mix of art, culture and sport. Our evening language classes have been running for a number of years and are always extremely popular. The Improvers French class aims to give confidence to students who feel their French is somewhat rusty and wish to re-visit and develop their knowledge of French grammar whilst the Advanced classes provides the opportunity for students to further progress their linguistic ability by encountering more diverse fields of vocabulary. We are also hoping to offer a Beginners' French class this year.

Evening classes take place over two terms: an initial shorter term during the autumn, leading into a second longer term from January through to mid-May.

Due to a long standing evening teacher retiring, we are seeking a native French speaker to join our team of experienced Evening Language Teachers to teach both Improvers' and Advanced conversation French to adults. The classes are taught in modern airy classrooms with full IT facilities available. We offer very competitive rates of pay.

Previous experience of teaching adults would be an advantage but is not essential.
