An exciting opportunity has arisen to introduce A Level Psychology directly within the BWS curriculum as part of the initiative to make the BWS Sixth Form fully co-educational from September 2020.

We are therefore looking to recruit an outstanding and inspirational Psychology teacher to lead the development of the subject not only to ensure high academic standards but also to drive wider initiatives across the curriculum. The successful candidate will be able to deliver high quality teaching and learning within our highly successful A-Level Faculty, teaching year 12 in the 2019/20 academic year and then both Years 12 & 13 from 2020 onwards. A suitable qualified candidate may also have a role in co-ordinating the Extended Project Qualification. The post will initially be approximately 0.25 FTE.

Bishop Wordsworth's School is a unique school in a unique place where we fuel pupil's wider intellectual curiosity, extending pupils knowledge and understanding beyond the narrow confines of exam syllabi with the aim to engender a passion for learning together with the skills required to pursue that passion independently.

We will offer you:

- A comprehensive program of CPD
- The opportunity to lead the development of Psychology
- The opportunity to join an outstanding Sixth Form Faculty with superb record in university entrance.
- Friendly staff and well-motivated and able students
