LUGGAGE

Luggage allowance 15 kilos. Please ensure your son has adequate warm and waterproof clothing, as we will spend a great deal of time outdoors. There are a couple of walking tours so sturdy shoes are also essential.

- TOWEL & TOILETRIES Please remind your son to pack these.
- VALUABLES We advise against taking valuable items on this Expedition.
- BEHAVIOUR Your son will be reminded that normal school rules apply during our Expedition.
- MEALS The first meal provided is the evening meal on Wednesday 27 February. Pupils should bring food for the first morning and lunch or have sufficient money to purchase meals as there shall be some time at the airport and when we have travelled into Berlin for our walking tour. Thereafter all meals are provided, with the final meal being lunch on Saturday 2 March. Students will need to buy an evening meal at the airport.
- ROOMING This will be pre-arranged with pupils before departure.
- ITINERARY I enclose a brief summary of our itinerary. This is subject to change if circumstances require.

Wednesday 27 February	Walking tour of Berlin Free time in shopping mall and hostel
Thursday 28 February	Gedenkstätte Berliner Mauer Berlin Wall Sachsenhausen Concentration Camp Checkpoint Charlie Museum Panorama Reichstag tour
Friday 1 March	Cold War Bunkers Flak Tower Topography of Terror (Gestapo Museum) Olympic Stadium. Bowling 30 mins bus
Saturday 2 March	DDR Museum Stasi Museum

Pupils will be accompanied by Mr Higson, Mr McIntyre, Mrs Singleton and Miss Brennan. Our guide is Mr Steve Williams.

I hope this information is useful. Please contact me if you need any further assistance.

Kind regards,

Miss V A Brennan
