Dear Parents

It is terrific news that your son has been called for an interview for an Arkwright Scholarship. All the boys should now have confirmed their attendance at the interview.

Last week I arranged a meeting with all the boys who have been successful in securing an interview. At that meeting they were able to meet the present Year 12 Arkwright scholars who discussed their interview experience last year. Together we gave the boys some further guidance to support them in preparing for their interviews. This meeting was also followed up with an email with useful information and the direct email addresses of the current scholars in the event of them wishing to ask for further guidance from one of those boys.

We discussed the interview guidance which they have received from Arkwright which gives lots of invaluable interview hints and tips. A copy can be found here:

We also discussed the presentation of the project work at interview. My suggestion is that they have 3 or 4 A4 or even A3 colour copies of different aspects of their project including lots of labelled pictures and diagrams. I am happy for us to laminate these but they will need to bring their copies to me by Friday 29 March to give me sufficient time to do this for them.

Please contact me if you need any further information.

Yours sincerely
