

VISITING SPEAKERS TO BWS SIXTH FORM 2015-16

Dr David Gibbons, Head of Science at the RSPB delivered the October Head master's Lecture
 	Dr Peter Shaw, OW delivered the November Head master's Lecture, speaking about his career since BWS and his research into satellite propulsion
Alan Maryon Davies, Public Health Expert and Broadcaster delivered the January Head master's Lecture
 	HM Lecture: Tim Mellor, Consultant Surgeon delivered the March Head master's Lecture
The 2016 Mullins Lecture was given by Peter Riddell, Chair of the Institute of Government, following a workshop for current Politics students
 	Clare Moody, Labour MEP for South-West England spoke at the Year 12 Citizenship Conference
Claire Perry, MP for Devizes and Minister of State for Railways, spoke in February to the Politics Society
 	John Glen, MP for Salisbury visited the Politics Society in October

Dr Tim Harrison of Bristol University Chemistry Department gave a talk to Year 13 on 'Gases in the Air' - a session of demonstrations and explosions!!	  University of BRISTOL
 	Prof Ian McHardy of Southampton University gave a BAYS talk on Astronomy
Dr Kate Hendry of the University of Bristol – spoke at BAYS on 'In at the deep end – Pioneering research into deep sea ecosystems'	  University of BRISTOL
	Dr Tommy Lwin, OW of Imperial College, London Medical School spoke at BAYS on "Thinking about medicine as a career?" and also provided mock interviews for Year 13 medicine applicants
Mr David Oyns , the Arkwright Engineering Regional Officer spoke to Year 12
 	Dr Stuart Cotteril of University of Winchester worked with Year 12 on the January STEM Day
Dr Elizabeth Beech from NHS in England spoke at the January STEM Day
  University of BRISTOL	Professor Michael Benton from Bristol University spoke to A Level Geologists on "Causes and impacts of the Permo-Triassic Mass Extinction"

Professor Amrit Mudher of Southampton University delivered a BAYS talk on “Using fruit flies to understand Alzheimer’s Disease”
 	Jon Murley of the Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers spoke to BAYS about Leadership in Engineering
Dr Jock Clear of the Institute of Mechanical Engineers gave the annual ImechE talk on “Engineering a World Champion in Formula One - ‘When the Race Engineer gets it right his driver wins races’ “
 	Dr Ben Cons, Vice-President of Quintiles, spoke about Pharmaceuticals at the STEM Day in January
Dr Keith Foster, VP Scientific Affairs at Syntaxin, an Ipsen Company, spoke to Year 12s on Botulism and Biotechnology
 	Dr Simon Gerrard of the University of Southampton Chemistry Department spoke to year 12 scientists
Tracy Collingridge of Cellmark spoke at the STEM Day in January on careers in Forensic Science talk
 	Will Oldham of Reading FC visited to work with students on the science of performance analysis

Dr Ben Taylor of St Andrew's University spoke to Year 12 Geologists on 'Microfossils as tools to understand palaeoclimate'
	Louise Pitman, Sue Taylor, Neil Grace spoke about Pharmacy and Pharmacology as a career as part of January's STEM Day
Tim Marshall, Chief Engineer at QinetiQ visited to talk to A level students about Engineering careers
 	Simon Boxall, Oceanography Professor at Southampton University spoke to students at a BAYS meeting
James Hounslow of Southampton University gave a BAYS talk on "The Doctor will see you now" - from X-rays to magnetic microbubbles'
 	Laura Jones of DSTL spoke to students about Material Science and 'Living in a Materials World'
Emma Lofthouse of Southampton University spoke to BAYS on 'Amino acid and drug transport in the Placenta - How does maternal health in pregnancy affect the later life of the unborn child?'
 	Rob Stratcham of the University of Portsmouth spoke to Geology students on "Understanding the Ancient Mountain Belts of the North Atlantic Borderlands"

David Andrews of Boeing visited to deliver a talk on Aeronautical Engineering
	Philip Franks, actor and director visited to speak to our Literature students in October about directing Shakespeare. Philip is a member of the RSC and one of the stars of ITVs The Darling Buds of May; he has since gone on to star in many major TV programmes and productions
Richard Taylor of the Samaritans worked with Year 12 as part of the Enrichment programme
	Chris Pugh, Wiltshire Police worked with Year 12 as part of the Enrichment programme
Dee Temple-Multon of Inspirebiz for Entrepreneurship worked through the year with Year 12 as part of their Enrichment programme
	Denis Twomey, Justice of the Peace worked with Year 12 as part of the Enrichment programme
Ambassador Chris Holtby, OW, UK Ambassador to Estonia, spoke to Politics students about Britain's international relations in September
	Professor Roger Scully from the University of Cardiff spoke in September to the Politics Society

David Fuller, Southampton Conservative campaign manager in the General Election spoke in October to the Politics Society
 	Professor Tim Oliver of the LSE spoke to the Politics Society in November about the international implications of Brexit
Molly Scott Cato, Green MEP for SW England spoke to the Politics Society in November
 	Dr Ghazala Azmat of Queen Mary University of London spoke on the gender pay gap to the Politics & Economics Society in December
Alan Whitehead, Labour MP for Southampton, visited the Politics Society in January
 	Lord Carlile of Berriew spoke to the Politics Society in March on his role as Independent Reviewer of Terrorism Legislation
Peter Oppenheimer of Oxford University spoke at a joint meeting of the Politics & Economics Society and the History Society in February
 	Jeremy O'Grady, Founder Editor of the The Week took part in the Politics Society's public EU Question Time in April

Royston Smith MP took part in the Politics Society's public EU Question Time in April
 	Dave Roberts, spokesperson for the Labour In campaign took part in the Politics Society's public EU Question Time in April
The journalist Rachel Johnston took part in the Politics Society's public EU Question Time in April
	James Bradwell, OW and current student at Bristol Old Vic, ran a Drama workshop in Arts Week in July
Dr Chris Reid, University of Portsmouth (Principal Lecturer, Economics and Finance), spoke to Economics and Business students on "Exercise and obesity: how economics approaches a wicked problem"
	Dr Steven Proud, Bristol University (Teaching Fellow, Department of Economics), spoke to Economics and Business students on "The externalities of driving and plastic bags: a traditional economics problem, or something a little more exotic?"
Harjinder Virdee, Southampton Solent University (Course Leader, School of Business and Law), spoke to Economics and Business students on "The UK housing market and the economy"
	Ian Royle, Global Head of Technology, Information & Cyber Risk at Barclays, spoke to Economics and Business students on "The threats to business through technology and cyber risk"

Dick Moore ran a workshop on Mental Health Issues for all students
 	Dr Andrew Bell, Senior Tutor at University College Oxford, spoke to students at the HE Conference about the value of university. He also spoke to students and parents about applying to Oxford and Cambridge.
Mike Gibbons, Director of Student Recruitment and International Development at Manchester University spoke at the HE Conference in February
 	Major Lizzie Bowman visited to speak about careers in the British Army, and to discuss options with individual students
Lindsay Sims of Mazars Accountants spoke at the HE Conference about careers in Finance
 	Anil Chauhan of RAF recruiting spoke to the Sixth Form about careers in the RAF
Jonny Rich, Founder of Push – The Ruthlessly Independent Guide to UK Universities – spoke to Year 12 about “Choosing without a pin”
 	Dr Emma Thompson of the University of Southampton visited to work with Year 12 students pursuing the Extended Project Qualification, as well as hosting them on a visit to the university.

Allison Havey and Deana Puccio of The RAP Project spoke to Year 12 students from both BWS and South Wilts in March on issues surrounding relationships, consent, social media and pornography
	Simon Leigh provided Drugs Education talks to all years of the school in March
Rebecca Capron, of Queen's University Belfast spoke to Sixth Formers in September
 	Josh Dean of Lancaster University spoke to Year 12 in April
Representatives of the National Citizen Service scheme spoke to the Sixth Form, encouraging them to sign up for NCS service in the summer
	Karen Coleman from Naomi House Children's Hospice and JacksPlace spoke in Sixth Form Assembly in January
Simon Vaughan spoke to the Sixth Form about the continuing human impact of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, and the work of Belarussian Victims of Chernobyl charity, which is based in Wiltshire
 	Piers Taberham, OW, of RBS spoke to the Sixth Form in January about careers in financial services

Yuri Winterstein, Holocaust survivor, spoke to all Sixth Formers on behalf of the Holocaust Education Trust in June
	John Mawhood from the Anthony Nolan Trust spoke to the Sixth Form about blood cancer and the value of joining the bone marrow potential donor register
Alan Aldersley-Byrne of Wiltshire Police spoke to the Sixth assembly May about the safe use of social media
	Dr Alexander Lock, Curator of Modern Historical Manuscripts at the British Library spoke to the History Society in October about Magna Carta
Dr George Gilbert of Southampton University talked to the History Society in October on the collapse of autocracy in Russia
	Dr James Ryan, University of Cardiff spoke to the History Society in November on the Russian Revolution
Professor Martin Daunton of Cambridge University, spoke to the History Society about the Government of Margaret Thatcher
	Dr Graham Goodlad, Head of Politics at St John's College, Southsea, spoke to the History Society in March on why the Heath Government failed

Brigadier Allan Mallinson, novelist and military historian, Defence Correspondent of The Times, spoke to the History Society in April about World War I
	All of Year 13 attended the Wiltshire Fire and Rescue Service's Safe Drive Presentation
Jack Adeney, of the BWS Class of 2016, spoke to Year 12 about applying to New York University, Abu Dhabi, where he will be studying next year
 	Phil Alexander of SERCO spoke at the STEM Day in January

N.B. The History and Politics Societies are entirely run by students, who identify the topics and speakers that they would be most interested in hearing and then make contact themselves to invite leading academics and politicians to visit BWS.