Dear Parents/Guardians

Godolphin Literary Festival – Year 12 and 13 English Literature Students

Godolphin School has very kindly invited our Literature students to listen to the author Marion Moltano talk about her life and works on Wednesday 11 October.

We would like all Literature students in both Year 12 and Year 13 to attend. The talk begins at 2:45pm. Ms Williams will be accompanying the group, and will meet students at the BWS Reception at the start of afternoon break (2:15pm), where she will register them before walking over to Godolphin with them. If any students need to meet the group at Godolphin rather than walk over, then they should let Ms. Williams or myself know in good time. We would imagine the talk to last for an hour or so. There will also be opportunities to purchase signed copies of books, so it would be good if students could take money if interested!

If any students have good reasons to be unable to attend, they should let me know before the end of this week.

Kind regards

Craig Ennew
