Dear Parents/Guardians

Are you, or someone you know, interested in training to become a secondary school teacher?

Following last term's letter you will be aware of our involvement in becoming a school that leads the way in terms of creating more school-led teacher training. We have linked up with several other secondary schools in the area to form a consortium called 'SUPA Salisbury' whose goal is to make Salisbury a centre of excellence in the delivery of teacher training. This is really important to us because it means we can choose the very best talent and develop them into teachers. Being able to choose who we train as teachers helps us in delivering the best outcomes for the students at Bishop Wordsworth's School.

We have vacancies now to start training from September 2018 and we would be very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher, or know someone who is. We're looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential. More information about SUPA Teachers can be found on our website:

http://www.bws-school.org.uk/main/Teacher_Training/pdf/SUPAOct2017.pdf

We'd love you to come in and have a chat with us about the exciting teacher training opportunities available. If you are interested in hearing more please contact Jeremy Rogers at jpr@bws.wilts.sch.uk to arrange a date and time. Alternatively, there is a 'Train to Teach' Afternoon Tea Event at St Joseph's School taking place on Thursday 18 January 2018 between 3.45pm and 5.15pm where SUPA Salisbury will be represented. There will be a formal presentation repeated during this time at 4.00pm and 4.45pm with time between to ask questions and gain more information about this exciting opportunity.

If you intend to attend the afternoon tea, please email Richard Rooney (Assistant Headteacher at St Joseph's School) at rro@sjcs.org.uk to register your interest.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Mr Jeremy Rogers
Assistant Headteacher
