Dear Parent / Guardian

April 2018

Re: Duchess of Malfi Trip 30th April – 1st May

I am writing to remind you of the above trip which you have paid for and would recommend that your son brings an allowance for leisure activities and entrance fees during his free time. We have been making enquiries and suggest your son brings around £20 minimum if possible.

We are hoping to build in a visit to King Edward VI School where we will be able to see Shakespeare's classroom - we have been asked for a contribution of £2.50 per pupil. This will be paid in cash on the day.

We would also like to visit Ann Hathaway's cottage and are advised that entrance fees are £11.25. Although we're not in a position to make these additional visits compulsory, it would be good if everyone could attend.

Other activities on offer which your son may wish to enjoy at a cost in his leisure time are:

- Canal & River Sight Seeing Boat Tours
- Open Air Bus Tours
- Butterfly Farm

And the following can be enjoyed without cost, save any purchases:

- Henley Street – Shakespeare's birthplace; shops & entertainment
- Wood Street – Independent shops
- Bridge Street – Main street with marvellous frontages
- High Street – Tudor frontages
- Sheep Street – Famous teddy bear shop at the bottom
- Meer Street – Old fashioned toys

Students will need to bring a packed lunch or money for lunch for Monday. All other meals, including a packed lunch on Tuesday, have been paid for but your son may wish to bring extra money for extra refreshments over the two days. Please note that, during the visit, all usual school rules apply, except that students will not be required to wear uniform.

Yours faithfully,

Mr C Ennew
