Dear Parents

GCE Examination Entries in Year 12

I am writing about your son's Advanced Subsidiary GCE Further Maths & EPQ examinations this summer and in particular about the entry fees charged by the examination boards. I would appreciate your completion and return of the reply slip below by Friday 11 May. This is an indemnity form for you to undertake to cover fees that the School has paid, should your son not attend any examination for reasons other than illness (for those sitting Further Maths).

The School normally undertakes to pay for the entry fees when candidates sit examinations for the first time. However, the bill to the school for the Year 12 examinations this year will make an extreme demand upon our budget. The average fee for an AS GCE Further Maths entry is approximately £54.00 and £49.50 for an EPQ entry.

Would you therefore be willing to make a voluntary contribution towards the costs of your son's Exam entries. Could you cover the costs of one or two subjects or the average costs of your son's entries? Any donation that you can give us will help us enormously. If you are a tax payer and have completed a Gift Aid declaration the value of your gift will be increased by the tax that we are able to reclaim. If you wish to make a voluntary contribution, please pay via www.scopay.com and contact the Finance Office for a Gift Aid form if required.

Thank you for your help.

Yours faithfully

S D Smallwood

I agree that should my son fail to sit any examination for which Bishop Wordsworth's Grammar School for Boys (The School) has paid the fees, for any other reason than illness certified by a medical practitioner, I shall refund to The School any fees paid by it on my son's behalf which cannot be recovered from the Examining Body.
